« What a strenght ! Interiority and power, built together in one breath" - Radio Suisse Romande praises Serbian pianist Jasmina Kulaglich for the creative link between her deep sensibility and her Slavic passion.

Currently based in Paris, she has recorded for the Naxos and Calliope labels, and is preparing a new CD as well as an exciting tour in the United States for the upcoming season. During the pandemic period, Jasmina remained very active, also with virtual concerts, organized by the Komm Bach Festival.

Soloist with the European Romantic Orchestra in Paris (two Liszt Concertos), UK Symphony Orchestra in London, chamber orchestras in France, she performs also with soloists of the "Orchestre de Paris", "Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France", "Orchestre National de France", "Orchestre National d'Ile-de-France". Jasmina founded the "Trio Botticelli" and recently the "Trio Bohème" with whom she released in 2019 the album "The Seasons" with the Tchaikovsky / Piazzolla program and received outstanding reviews across Europe.

Nurtured by the traditions of the Russian school of pianists, and then that of Claudio Arrau, she is performing in France (Salle Gaveau, Salle Cortot, Cziffra Foundation, Goethe Institut), Great Britain (London, Leister), Switzerland (Geneva, Lausanne, Neuchatel), Italy, Holland, Belgium, the USA...

Jasmina Kulaglich released the Naxos CD « Byzantine Mosaic » in the World Premiere, presenting the Serbian composer Svetislav Bozic. The CD received, among others, the highest award from the famous belgium classical magazine « Crescendo » and still attracts attention from critics for its originality – « it's a record of rare beauty » (ResMusica)

"Masterstroke by the pianist, a compatriot of the composer" (Classique Info Disques)

« The effervescent playing of Jasmina Kulaglich reaches out to the listener immediately »

(Etienne Muller)

« This artist has the innate gift of beauty »

(A.Delle Vigne, Mozarteum, Salzburg)

« L'Heure Bleue » Hall, La Chaux de Fonds, Switzerland
